Thank you Jenny. It may be true that I have worked on the Washington Works case longer than some but you arguably have the largest workload in dealing with Ohio which has the larger number of impacted water supplies. Keep up the good work!

Hi Roger,

That was a nice note to Jacquie, but you have worked on this case for a long time and deserve many accolades as well.

Take care,
Jenny

Good morning Jacquie,

Kevin and I just received official notification of the recognition given to the "Washington Works PFOA Team". I want to pass along our congratulations to you, Jenny and the other members of the team. Thank you so much for preparing the exceptional writeup for the award and thanks for all your hard work and unflappable tenacity in seeing the project through to a successful conclusion. You and Andy Duchovnay were paramount in this success. Hope all is well – take care.

Roger
